Week 1: Trouble Online with Other Players

- Game screen: "This game is too loud! I struggle to follow the conversation with the music on at the storm level."

- Captain: "I don't want to play online and spend my hard-earned money on a game I don't enjoy just so I can play with other people from all over. This is jarring!"

- Player: "Hey, why are you mad?"

- Captain: "I'm not mad at you, but I am mad at this game."

- Player: "Hey! Why are you being so... weird?"

- Captain: "Oh, I'm just being myself."

- Player: "Kid knows, is everything okay?"

- Captain: "I don't really feel like playing anymore. This game is no worth playing when I don't know why."

- Player: "I thought this game was going to be more fun. I don't know if that's the game's fault or my own..."

- Captain: "A good job, kid! You're really doing a good job of finding up for yourself."

- Player: "Thank you, Captain! You're the best!"

Week 3: Kit Kinder confides in Ari and Zoey

There's this player who keeps making jokes about me looking like a thug. And... that's not a funny thing to say to a black person. Actually, it's not funny to say to anyone. Words like that hurt.

Me: Not cool.

He: I mean, what’s the big deal? It’s just a joke.

Me: I’ll keep that on the low down. But kids have little imaginations.

Ari: And you keep saying that people can’t make jokes about race. It’s a big deal.

Zoey: I don’t know why you still keep saying that. I mean, you’re not someone’s dumb little sister or anything.

Ari: Oh, inc.

Zoey: I just think you’re being a little sensitive.

Me: And I know that I don’t make every single joke that I think is funny. But I also don’t make every racial joke that I think is funny.

House Elves: But you don’t want to play with us anymore.

Me: I’m not sure. I just feel like it might be a good idea to talk about it with someone.

Ari: And if I want to talk about it, I’ll do it on my own.

Zoey: I’m just saying, it might be a good idea to talk about it with someone.

Me: Okay, I’ll talk to you both about it.

Ari: Yeah, let’s talk about it.

Zoey: Let’s talk about it.

Me: I’m not sure if I want to tell anyone.

Week 5: Refusing Race-Based Bullying

Let’s look at it this way. If you see someone being treated unfairly because of their race, what do you do?

There’s no playbook.

What don’t we see in movies or TV shows these days?

Diversity needs us to care.

What would you feel if someone at your school was being bullied because of their race?

I think we all have a duty to make sure that our friends and classmates are safe.

Diversity needs us to listen.

That’s exactly what I want you to do.

Diversity needs us to act.

No more being silent.

Diversity needs us to listen.

No more being silent.

We need to take action.

When we do, we make a difference.
